Procedure for co-opting a Parish Councillor

Parish Councils are permitted the power to co-opt a person on to council to fill a casual vacancy when the requirements to hold an election have not been met (the vacancy has been the subject of a public notice and less than 10 registered voters have requested an election by the deadline specified by the returning officer).

Although seeking 'expressions of interest' is not a legal requirement, the National Association of Local Councils (NALC) recommends that Councils always give public notice of vacancies because this makes the process of co-option open and transparent and should attract more potential candidates.

The Parish Council will advertise the vacancy to seek and encourage 'expressions of interest' by a specified date from anyone in the parish who is eligible to stand as a Parish Councillor. The attached form will be used as the basis of ascertaining a candidate's suitability to put his or herself forward for co-option. At the next Full Council meeting:

- Clerk to confirm that each candidate is qualified to become a Councillor and is not disqualified from being a Councillor as set out in the Local Government Act 1972 S79 and s.80.
- Chairman to invite candidates to speak if they are in attendance and to allow members the chance to ask questions of the candidates.
- Only Councillors present at the meeting may nominate, second or vote upon a person to fill the vacancy. A Councillor may only nominate or second one candidate.
- The chairman will offer opportunity for debate on the order of priority to offer co-option to the candidates. In most cases, the candidates will be asked to leave the room while this process takes place.
- Voting for the new Councillor will be by a show of hands. The Chairman will initiate a vote in alphabetical order. Councillors have one vote each.
- An absolute majority vote is required for each candidate from all members present and entitled to vote. If there are more than two candidates for one vacancy and no one of them at the first count receives a majority, the candidate with the least number of votes will be eliminated and the remainder must be put to the vote again until an absolute majority is obtained (LGA 1972 Sch. 12. Para 39). One person will be chosen for each vacancy.
- The successful candidate is then declared co-opted to the Council and summoned to attend the next Council meeting.

The above procedure takes place in open Council.

The Clerk will notify Electoral Services of the new Councillor appointment and organise Declaration of Acceptance of Office paperwork. All new Councillors, must, within 28 days of appointment, register their interests with MVDC – forms to be supplied by the Clerk.

The attached form will be used as the basis of ascertaining a candidate's suitability to put his or herself forward for co-option.
